SOUTH STREET OYSTER SALOON

Here's an event of interest to fans of working harbor...

Join fellow Market supporters as the covered outdoor forecourt of the historic Fulton Fish Market is transformed into a bustling night market and a revival of the Oyster Saloons once found in all of New York's public markets.

Enjoy fresh-shucked regional oysters and oyster-centric menu items from special guests including April Bloomfield of The John Dory Oyster Bar, Alejandro Alcocer of green brown orange, Patrick Connolly of bobo Restaurant, King Phojanakong of Kuma Inn, and the creative teams from Great Performances, Luke's Lobster, and Neuman's Caterers; plus grilled cheese from Saxelby Cheesemongers and the Cellars at Jasper Hill, special pickles from rick's picks, and Brooklyn Cured, brown bread from Sullivan Street Bakery, cask beers sourced by Beer Table, coffee & cake from Blue Bottle Coffee, music from the Silvester Manor Trio, and more!

Saturday, April 9 5pm to 10pm
at the Old Fulton Fish Market on South Street (enter at Beekman Street)
