Profile: Captain John Doswell - Executive Director of Working Harbor Committee

Capt. John Doswell

Capt. John Doswell was a writer, designer, producer and software developer for corporate clients, Broadway, films and multi-media presentations for many years. He never lost sight of his passion for the water and eventually turned his complete attention to NYC's waterfront. Capt. Doswell is now a waterfront consultant and maritime event producer on many water events in NYC, including the Great North River Tug Boat Race, City of Water Day, The Liberty Challenge Outrigger Canoe Race, numerous on-water parades & flotillas and many more on-water events. He serves on the board for several waterfront organizations and founded Friends of Hudson River Park. Capt. Doswell is the Executive Director of Working Harbor Committee and dedicated to educating the people of NYC about the working waterfront through our Hidden Harbor Tours(r).

Sad News

Renown tugboat photographer and writer Don Sutherland passed away recently. He was a friend of the Working Harbor Committee and produced some great photos of our annual tug boat race.

To see his body of work please visit: don-sutherland.com

He will be sadly missed by the WHC and the entire New York Harbor maritime industry. This year's Tugboat Race on 5 September 2010 will be dedicated in his memory.
